

Expedition to New Zealand's Sub-Antarctic Islands

Dunedin – Dunedin | Departs 29 December 2025 to 12 January 2026 & 12 January 2026 to 26 January 2026

aboard Le Soléal 15 days / 14 nights | From AU$19,650 per person in a Deluxe Stateroom Deck 3*

Often described as the Galápagos of the Southern Ocean, the Subantarctic Islands of New Zealand are among some of the best preserved and protected environments on the planet, where you will experience scenery and wildlife like nowhere else on Earth. You will be captivated by the breathtaking scenery, meadows of megaherbs forming a colourful tapestry, and towering cliffs buffeted by the power of the waves and wind -the playground of the Royal Albatross. With a myriad of penguins patrolling the black sandy beaches it is truly a nature-lover's dream come true. Beginning your journey with a unique small ship experience of Fiordland, including the majestic Dusky, Doubtful and Milford sounds is sure to delight. Part of Te Wāhipounamu, this UNESCO World Natural Heritage Site heralds some fascinating zodiac cruising and wildlife spotting.

Voyage Highlights:

- Explore the South West World Heritage Area home to majestic and spectacular Milford, Dusky and Doubtful sounds. Experience a zodiac cruise in the fiords and try to spot the rare Fiordland crested penguin.
- UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Te Wāhipounamu, Macquarie Island* and New Zealand's Subantarctic Islands (Snares, Auckland and Campbell islands).
- View breeding populations of New Zealand, Antarctic and Subantarctic fur seals, New Zealand sea lions and Southern elephant seals.
- Explore Snares Island, home to more nesting seabirds than the entire realm of the British Isles.
- Undertake a guided walk on the predator-free sanctuary of Ulva Island (Te Wharawhara).
- Gain an insight into the history and the diversity of flora and fauna from your expert expedition team on board and while exploring by zodiac.
