

WILD WEST

Colours of the West Coast

4 - 14 December 2026

The majestic mountains of the Southern Alps have shaped the West Coast Region into one of New Zealand's most unique destinations, abundant with natural resources and spectacular scenery. Stretching over 600 kilometres along the coastline – from lush rainforest in the north to glaciers and dramatic alpine landscapes in the south – the Coast reveals an ever-changing palette of colour and contrast. Discover a rich history and heritage reflected in coal and gold-mining relics, and historic townships, alongside towering mountains, breathtaking coastal vistas, and pristine wilderness.

A journey to the West Coast is truly awe-inspiring – a place that never fails to surprise and delight.
